

Canadian History 1201

Learning Outcomes

Unit I – Prelude to Nationhood, 1759-1867 (Chapter 1)

*Unit I study/review material includes handouts, notes and parts of the textbook's Chapter One.

Upon completion of this Unit I, students should be able to:

1. Define the following terms:
  - a) British North America
  - b) Upper and Lower Canada
  - c) representative government
  - d) responsible government
  - e) legislative assembly
  - f) Fenians
  - g) Reciprocity
  - h) constitutional monarchy
  - i) Dominion
2. Explain the reasons for Lord Durham's appointment to Upper and Lower Canada.
3. Analyze the impact of Durham's report upon French-English relations.
4. Analyze how political deadlock affected decision-making in Canada East and Canada West.
5. List the reasons for the Charlottetown Conference, 1864
6. Identify the interests of each of the participating groups attending the conference.
7. Assume the role of selected participant groups to illustrate the outcomes of the Charlottetown Conference.
8. Analyze the results of the Quebec Conference, 1864.
9. Assess the impact of external factors leading to Confederation
10. List the essential elements of the London Conference, 1866
11. Describe the role of the Governor General at the time of Confederation.
12. Compare the structure of the House of Commons with the structure of the Senate in the BNA Act.
13. Contrast the role of the House of Commons with the structure of the Senate in the BNA Act.
14. List the jurisdictional powers of the provincial and federal governments.
15. Explain how the BNA Act protected the rights of French Canadians.
16. Examine the degree to which Canada was an independent nation.